FOUR CARS A DAY. There are but two logical methods of but motor cars. One methods are two logical methods of but motor cars. One methods are two logical methods of but motor cars.

One method is to produce cars in enormous quantities so as to bring the price down as low as possible.

The other method is to produce cars in limited quantities so that each car will be of the

Each system has but one real exponent. In a middle Western city, "mass production" enables a good small car to be made and sold at a low figure. In a New England city, "The Best Built Car in America" is produced practically car by car, by the finest mechanics in the world.

One car carries out one ideal, the other a totally different ideal. Both are right. Both are built, not assembled. One company makes 1,000 cars a day, the other company Four Cars a Day. The idea back of one car is to give the most for the money; the idea back of the other is to give the best regardless of price.

The smaller car is turned out like the well-known and worth while "dollar watch." The greater car is built like a Chronometer. Any other car—is a compromise.

The Locomobile now occupies a peculiar position. It is the only high grade car whose sales have increased during the past two years.

This success of the Locomobile is due to the policy of building not more than four cars a day. All of the power and the experience of the Locomobile organization has been concentrated on a limited production.

Years ago we concluded that just so surely as the best cheap car could only be produced in very large number, just so surely could the car of highest quality be produced only in limited quantities.

Our policy from the very start was to build cars in small lots so that each car could have the most intimate attention. When others were increasing their plants and building more cars, we were increasing our quality, striving to make the Locomobile "The Best Built Car in America."

Every Locomobile has been built like every other Locomobile. Every Locomobile has been built with the utmost care. Every Locomobile has been built to carry out the ideal of quality, not a commonplace, commercial ideal.

The Locomobile will be made as it always has been made, in limited quantity—and with unlimited care. (Despite the present demand for the Locomobile and despite any rumor to the contrary, we will not increase our production and make more cars.)

There will always be a demand for the limited number of cars we make. Because we have been building for the future, our plant will always run at capacity, without reducing the quality of our product or price.

The Short Cut to Market

Railroads spend millions yearly straight-ening curves and making short cuts.

It pays in net earnings.

National manufacturers can shorten the curves between them and the local market by appealing through the best medium to reach the market—the daily newspapers.

The merchants of this town will tell you that their advertising in daily newspapers like THE JOURNAL brings direct returns day by day.

Newspaper advertising is an intimate daily part of the people's lives. It reaches them when they are in the mood for buying.

The modern short cut to market for a nationally advertised product is through a co-operative campaign in the daily newspapers between merchant and manufacturer.

Competition in the campaign was close. Each of the three leaders submitted the same number of correct titles—33. Mrs. Donaldson peckent of 74 by Mr. Price. Therefore, under the rules, she is entitled to the $1.000 award, while Mr. Neal gets $750, and Mr. Price, $500. Many of the other contestants were close behind. Several named over sixty correct titles to the 75 books represented in the printed pictures.

The campaign opened on April 6 and for seventy-five days after that a drawing was reproduced in every edition of The Journal-On July 12th and the printed of that day. The managers allowed six days for the books to come in. And they came by the thousands. Every mail brought scores, sometimes hundreds. Then, on April 22 the judges were called in and began their task.

Since then the five well known men who decided the event have been working out the result. Every one of the three vallion answers was examined, checked and rechecked. It was hard work and the companying photographs show the first five contestants, the five judges and a portion of the shelves whereon repose some of the answer aubmitted. Comparatively, only a few of the answer aubmitted. Comparatively, and so recompany of the days of the competitions are revealed. There are shelves and shelves of them.

Communications received from contestants again, interesting anout of those who worked hardest. Awards will be sent to people all over Dixie—in Georgia, Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, Sinssippi and Louisiana. All thee states were represented.

Many of the competitors want another contest next year. They for it in letters.

A great number of those who won prizes this year were entered in last year's campaign the experience enabled to judge with more accuracy the correct book titles this year.

Nearly every one who entered the second contest to a more creditable showing than the first one.

Our Own Property Let Us Build for You

LET US build you a handsome brick residence on Virginia avenue, at actual cost. We will not charge one cent profit. Where we come in is in selling you the lot and building up Virginia avenue as we want it. In twelve months from now we expect to have a beautiful 60-foot cherted street from Highland avenue along by Piedmont Park to Peachtree, with homes all built of brick and stone. If you are looking for a home, be sure and figure

Let Us Build for You

WE START two bricks on Virginia avenue in a few days. But before we do, we would like for you to give us some idea of how you want your home built. Let us talk it over. It costs nothing to look into a proposition.

Let Us Build for You

WE START five beautiful bungalows on Atlanta avenue next week, in a half block of Capitol avenue. You might do well to see us, and we could just build to suit vou.

Let Us Build for You

WE ARE building on our own property and can put you on Peachtree Road, lot 81x325 feet, 120 feet wide in rear, city water, car line, new cherted road. We will build you a 9-room house here on this big lot and sell for $11,500, reasonable terms. This is our lot. We make nothing on the house, but we sell the lot at $60 per foot. Just what other lots are held at.

Let Us Build for You

OUR OWN property at Rock Springs, on Piedmont avenue and Cheshire Road. Will build you nice 2-story brick on a lot 60x200 feet, and sell the whole thing for $6,750. The house is a dream. Two baths

These lots—we have about 25 of them left—are on a high elevation, overlooking every office building in the heart of the city; every lot has beautiful oak shade. Most of the level. All are 50 feet front by 120 to 164 feet deep. They are right at lots that are actually selling for $800 to $1,000 each. There is not another bunch of lots anywhere around Atlant, that is selling as low as we have these lots listed. Now is the time to buy these lots, now have a county are doing work if this section, be-sides several owners that are improving, and will improve later on. # THE PRICE OF A SOUL

BY WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN
Converget, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

One of the series of Chautauqua lectures by Mr. Bryon, which have droused nation-wide attention.

THE fact that Christ dealt with this subject is proof confor He never dealt with trivial tinings. When Christ focused attention upon a thems it was attention upon a thems in the substantial christ weighed the soul. He presented the subject too with surpassing force; no one will ever add emphasis to what the said.

On one side He put the world and all that the world can contain—sil the wealth that one can accumulate, all the fame to which one can-aspire, and all the happiness that one cancovet; and on the other side he put the soul, and assed the question that has come ringing down the centuries: What ahall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and less his for four years a member of the staff of the New York ilberary, but now shy has returned to Atlanta to take up library work here. Dating her four years in New York she was much with the italian and devish, eithidren, many of shome anote no English. The work she bild among these little ones of the immigrants was the work of an evangelist. But she knew that equally as important tasks were waiting here, and she determined to return to Atlanta, and, to continue the work to which she had devoted herself in New York city. Miss flows has charge of the Oaktland City branch library, and will direct the library at the Unebe Remus home. Following the plan which has been adopted generally in New York she will make club centers of the branch libraries. She will form the boys and girls in clubs, and by this means she will work for their betterment.

The horse which is shown in the photograph beneath those or Miss Brown and the little girl to whom she is reading, is the most untameable in the army stables here. He is a half bronche and has never grown used to the saddle.

A Superb Showing of New Hats

The Initial Showing of Distinctive Styles Secured by Our Buyer on His New York Trip

Secured by Our Buyer on His New York Trip Like other good stores we have New York connections who send us the hat styles as they appear. Atlanta women, however, have ideas of their own. They possess individuality. The selections of a milliner a thousand or more miles away, therefore, are not always felicitious. Our millinery chief knows this. He is right here on the firing line. He fairly breathes the Fashion Atmesphere of Atlanta. His New York trips are timed to bring back the best hat styles suitable for Atlanta women. Because he is just back from his last trip, the Millinery Department tomorrow will fairly bloom with the new styles. No, we can't deserribe them; some are only now in the shipping room being unpacked; others will not arrive until the Monday morning express. But all, or nearly all, will be ready for you to see Monday after 10 a. m.

Foreign Styles and Best American Copies

This week a special showing of novelties from the best artists. A great many of them are original gowns and others are best American translations of foreign styles. Included are many things which are only to be seen here. This showing is largely made up of the "one-of-a-kind" individual styles, which are so dear to exclusive dressers.

Evening Gowns

Embracing every new feature peculiar to this season, such as sash and girdle trimmed lace gowns, embroidered chifton gowns, combination gowns of net and charmeuse; velvet brocaded gowns embroidered on chifton, and gowns of embossed cloth of gold. All have V or a square neck; all have $25 to $150 demi-trains

Afternoon Gowns

Graceful and artistic, of silk and lace, satin and net, brocaded crepe, chiffon broadcloth, combination cloth and satin. Some are street lengths, others demi-trains, in all the new high shades as well as blacks and blues. Also the popular one-piece velvets in black, blues, grays, browns and helio, with $35 to $95 satin, chiffon and self trimmed blouses, round lengths

Dinner Dresses

Fifty distinct styles of Dinner Frocks are newly shown tomorrow. Some are with the new draped tunics, in all-over orientals, others are pastel shades of silk and chiffon, with lace bodies. Among them also will be found crystal and flowered trimmed chiffon gowns. Copies of French models are shown in Canton crepes, silks, charmeuse and crepe de chine $35 to $150

Tire Taxes Which We Pay for You in No-Rim-Cut Tires No Other Maker Does It

The cost of tire upkeep lies mainly in less three shortcomings:

Rim-Cutting—Blow-Outs—Loose Treads.

We spend fortunes each year—spent by no other maker—to minimize these costs. We save tire users in these ways many millions of dollars. And Goodyear tires, on this account, outsell any other. Note now how we do it.

The Rim-Cut Tax Our No-Rim-Cut tire ends rim-cutting com-pletely, and we control the way.

pacety, and we control the way.

The method we use—the only feasible method—is protected by secrecy.

The rins-cutting tax is normous.

Careful statistics, made by public accountants, prove that rim-cutting ruins almost one clincher tire in three.

We wipe out all that tax.

The Blow-Out Tax

The wrinkles are caused by curing, under ferce compression, on an iron core. All tires save Goodyears are cured on iron cores alone.

No-Rim-Cut tires are final-cured on air bags, shaped like inner tubes. They are vulcanized on elegatic air, as you use stretched out. Every inch of every layer does its share of duty.

We add to our tire cost $1,500 daily to thus save blow-outs for you.

Loose Tread Tax

Loose I read I ax Tread separation usually occurs close to the breaker strip—an essential fabric used at the base of the tread in all standard tires.
We use a parented fabric, woven with hundreds of quarter-inch holes. The tread ruber, in its plastic state, is forced down through these holes. Then the tire is vulcanised en masse.

Thus hundreds of large rubber rivets are formed to prevent tread separation.

We paid $50,000 for rights to this method, and no other maker employs it.

We Pay It All

All this extra expense is to save you ex-ense—save you many times what it costs as.

At one time—on this account—No-Rim-Cut tires cost one-fifth more

But multiplied output

But multiplied output has cut cost of produc-tion until it balanced this extra cost.

Now no standard tire of any type costs less than No-Rim-Cut tires.

So you get these sav-ings, without a penny of ngs, without a penny of tax, by simply insisting on Goodyear No-Rim-Cut itres.

Read the facts again and judge if you want them. If so, bear in mind that no other tire gives them. Our dealers are everywhere.

The New Business Era.

A HC INCW DUSINESS LTA.

R. G. Duna & Co's commercial review of the past week is particularly encouraging. Business confidence, we are told, is despending and there is a pronounced tendency "to extend operations further into the future." The volume of trade is larger than at this time a year mgo, more machinery is active and more people are employed. Especially significant is that part of the report which declares: report which declares which declares:

"Less conservation is manifest in the wool market. Buyers of leather are operating more freely. Pig from referets increased firmness, with heavy nales of Southern from a feature. The strong statistical position of coper has been reflected in a continued rise in section."

priose."
These conditions are all the more noteworthy in view of the fact that they prevail immediately fare the passage of a tariff full which towers the division of a great many commedities and removes it entirely from others. Dismal prophecies that progressive legislation would disturb the country's business have been completely belied. At no time since the tariff bill was introduced has there been a sign of depression and now that its terms are practically all known and are soon to become effective, industry and trade are pressing forward giore vigorously than ever before, freed from suspense and cheered by a fertile future.

The fact is the United States is entering a new economic era. Under the wise leadorship of the Wilson administration, old barriers that discouraced individual enterprise are being removed, old discriminations that fostered particular interests at the expense of general interests are being abolished. A tariff that is fair to the people and to business as a whole is soon to be followed by a banking and currency system that will be fair to the people and of our economic life are being made soors just and for that reason they will inevitably be more prosperous and secure.

Advancing Medical Standards.

Advancing Medical Standards.

The advancing standards of medical practice and education in the United States are reflected in a marked decrease in the number of medical students and collegae. Statistics rescently compiled by the Journal of the American Medical Association show that in the year ended June the thirtieth, 1913, there were seventeen thousand and fifteen students, nearly three thousand fewer than in 1911, forty-five hundred fewer than in 1911, forty-five hundred fewer than in 1910, and eleven thousand fewer than in 1910, and eleven thousand fewer than in 1910, and eleven thousand fewer than 1911, figure 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1911, 1

It is evident also that the ranks of medical colleges, which once aprang up like mushrooms, are steadily thinning. Those that remain, however, are doing better work and are developing men in whose hands the public health and lite are far safer than under the slip-shoot, irresponsible regime of years good by. employ at least four civil engineers and road ex-perts to aid the various counties in the efficient building of highways is so obviously wise that it should be put into effect with the least possible delay. Such a plan would reduce the cost and increase the service of Georgia roads and would also furnish a basis and starting point for the development of a Statewide system of good roads, which is the paramount need of our highway in-terests.

Commissioner Patterson, the author of this siggestion, has written to the officials of each countnaking their opinion of the proposed eaterprise.

He explains that the engineers could be at the disposal of the counties for at least ten days in eaderear and could assist them in locating, large of improving and maintaining their roads, insputing improving and maintaining their rooms, the proper surface on roads, in constructions of the proper surface on roads, in the most construction and economical manner. "We realisticated the property of the pro bridges and in doing this work in the most com-petent and economical manner. "We realise," says the commissioner, "that most of the coun-ties are unable to employ an engineer for all of his time, however advantageous that would be; it has been thought, therefore, that this department could be of assistance in providing these four ex-perts at the expense of the State, whose services the counties could use.

This offer will doubtless evoke widespread re-sponse, for, it goes to the pith of problems that concern scores of Georgia counties. Most building and road maintenance are an art based upon; a science. They call for trained judgment and ex-science. They call for trained judgment and experience. In the selection or material, the determination of grades, the putting on of binders and in many other particulars, the advice of an engineer is indepensable, if the work is to be durable and the many payers are to receive a due return from their money. If it were possible, every county should employ its own road expert; but since this cannot be done, it is the State's duty to shoulder this task in behalf of its common interests.

Much money is being spent in Georgia for higaway improvement. Some communities are voiting ilberal bond issues for this purpose, others are levying a special assessment and nearly all of them are alloting a fair perion of their revenues to road work. There is no lack of public entuesame but there is a very manifeer need or sounder methods in the use of these funds. A dollar advisedly spent will go further than ten basis will inst tonger and be far cheaper than ten loosely applied. A road constructed on a scientific basis will inst tonger and be far cheaper than ten lands carelessly built. A corps of engineers would save the State and the different counties incomparably more money than their service would cost.

This policy offers another advantage even

This policy offers another advantage even greater than that of economy; it would develop among the counties a sense of common needs and would thus lead eventually to the formation of a well connected system of highways. As conditions now are in Georgia most counties are building roads chiefly from a local standpoint, whereas the value of every road depends primarily upon its relation to other roads. Because of this, there has no nersistent demand in recent years for has been a persistent demand in recent years to the establishment of a State Highway Commission which could coordinate the labors of the individu counties and weld the separate links of roads in a strong Statewide chain.

a strong Statewide chain.

The engineers suggested by Judge Patterson would go far toward serving this purpose. Their work would supply at least the nucleus of effective State aid and supervision. Being in spontinual touch with the needs and plans of all counties touch with the needs and plans of all counties they could be of inestimable value to each county. Those States that 'are making most progress in the good roads cause and that are restinging the richest return upon their investment in this new have adopted in some form a State Highway Commission. ## What Tourists Want.

What Tourists Want.

From automobile tourist travel, Florida could realise a million doilars a day during several months of the year, thinks the Tampa Tribune, if the State would develop and maintain a thoroughly modern system of public highways. The Tribune's editor bases this estimate on personal observations he has recently made in the Esatt. "On the roads of New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island," says he, "there are thousands of automobiles passing every day, probably at least half of them coming at this season of the year from other localities to enjoy motoring on accellent roads. These tourists and visitors stop at good hotels and the general reckoning is that each person spends an average of eight to ten doilars a day, and some much more than that but they lavariably sizy where the roads are good."

w of tourists will multiply a hundred fold. Tribune emphasizee Florida's opportunity in his regard:

"It is our firm belief that when we get a system of good roads connecting the principal points and resorts in the State at least a hundred thousand will come to Florida every winter with their cars. One hundred thousand people in the dicliers a day would make a total of a million dollars a day spent in our State by visitors for a period of three or four months. It almost staggers creduitly but it is what one sees in the East—and there nothing is thought of it."

These flutture may seen somewhat air; but U

nothing is thought of it."
These figures may seem somewhat siry but the idea behind them is substantial. Automobile tourist travel in America is growing wonderfully and is proving richly profitable to every State that attracts it. Here, then, is another practice incentive to the building and mainteanance of good roads in the South, another example of the fertile reads in the South, another example of the twelve-investment which a modern system of highway represents. The State that develops good reads serves the immediate interests of its agriculture and commerce and its educational and social progress and it also offers a steady inducement to wealth from abroad.

these auts is unusually high, the cost of producing and marketing them is comparatively low, while the demand for them is worldwide. These three conditions form the basis of a permanent and profitable industry.

Mr. Alexander McRae, a successful horticulturist of Alabama, contributed to a recent issue of the Floraia (Ala.) News an interesting discussion of the nutriment in pocass. In this connection he uses a particularly pungent illustration. A quarter of a large pecan kernel, when lighted at the end as if it were a candle, will burn with a low, clear fame "as pure and free tion. A quarter of a large pecan kernel, when lighted at the end as if it were a candio, will burn with a slow, clear fiame "as pure and free as a wax taper." "When a small portion is well charred, blow out the flame and let the nostrial feast on the odor of the stender thread of smoke arising. Every meat eater instantly exclaims burnt steak." The fact is the very oils which make up the rich sustemance in beet are contained in pecans, though in a far purer quality and far more abundantly.

If, as some economists predict, a food substitute for meat must be found, because of the steady increase in population and the decrease in the supply of meat, the pecan, it would seem, will go far toward answering this need. Mr. McRae contends furthermore that pecans, while serving the same purpose as beef, can be grown so cheaply and so plenteously and handled with such a minimum risk or loss that they are an ideal food product both from the farmer's and the convener's standpoint. The pecan tree is hardy, or rapid growth, of early fruition and its old age. rapid growth, of early fruition and its old ago

In America the growth of the finer varieties of the peean is limited to the lower South but the demand for them extends over the nation and the world. It is gratifying to note that this important industry is receiving more and more attention in Georgia. It offers safe and fruitful field of in-vestment to business men and farmers alike; as a source of steady wealth and enterprise for the State it is, perhaps, unsurpassed.

Still, the world do move. The man who has to fill the furnace used to have to fill the open fire-place—and saw the wood at that.

Circulation Statements

The Congress preceding the one now in session passed a bill requiring newspapers to submit to the postoffice department semi-annual statements of their circulation. Reports not based on actual figures should be rejected and condemned, and where the department has cause to doubt the accuracy of a report, due investigation should be made.

This, it is understood, is precisely what the postal authorities purpose to do following the next statements, returnable October the first. It appears that a number of complaints have been made of reports that did not represent circuition facts. While every scrupilous newspaper will be particularly careful in making out the sworts attended. dollars a day, and some much more than that. But they invariably stay where the roads are good."

During winter months the South is by every natural circumstance an ideal region for the automobile tourist. Its genial and wholesome climate and the varied charms of its indecape are compelling invitation to outdoor sports and, particularly, to motoring. In no other part of the continent can pleasure-seekers and health-seekers find natural conditions so admirably suited to their wish. When to these advantages is added a well-kept, unbroken chain of highwars comparable to those in seasors States, the South's southern provider, it is respect.

Like the alert mariner, the wide-awake merchant will spread extra canvas to catch the breeze of prosperity that's now blowing strong in this section.

That's the way to increase his sales.

If it's worth while to try to keep these good times in circulation, why not spend as much as we can of this extra money in the South?

You can help, kind reader. You encourage the game when you say, "I believe I'll try a pair of Red Seal Shoes—made in Atlanta."

They are no longer an experiment. For thirty years they have been worn by three generations. Millions of folks in the South can testify to the comfort and economy found in Red Seal Shoes.

The merchant who wants to turn a good part of his shoe stock over once a month should get next to our Red Seal system.

There's a place for a Red Seal Shoe Store in every town in the South.

If your shoe business has not been as satisfactory as you might wish, just remember—

WE'LL DOUBLE your sales on the same amount of stock you now carry. Salesman by appointment.
